CASA LAS TORTUGAS

PEDASI, PANAMA

Casa Las Tortugas is an extraordinary estate on a wilderness reserve on Panama's Pacific Coast. With its iconic design and personalized luxury, this luxury vacation rental offers an unparalleled vantage point to marvel at the surrounding nature, providing a true haven for adventure seekers and nature enthusiasts. Nestled within a conservation forest, this exquisite residence serves as a serene retreat and a beautiful haven to unwind and immerse in the tranquility of the surroundings.

Stunning interiors adorned with floor-to-ceiling windows unveil mesmerizing views of the untouched outdoors. In the living room, an air of elegance and comfort prevails, courtesy of thoughtfully curated furnishings and lofty ceilings that infuse a sense of spaciousness. The fully-equipped chef's kitchen beckons culinary enthusiasts, while the adjacent indoor dining area provides an enchanting setting to relish gourmet meals. Each of the seven suites offers ultimate indulging in the lap of luxury within, where ocean views and en-suite bathrooms with indoor/outdoor showers ensure unparalleled comfort and privacy. Casa Las Tortugas becomes the ultimate escape for families and groups, accommodating up to 14 guests with seven king beds and an additional eight with trundle beds. For leisure and entertainment, a well-appointed recreation room boasts a pool table.

Beyond the walls, this Panama luxury vacation rental beckons guests to embrace the region's outdoor wonders. The estate provides access to 12 miles of trails, allowing complete immersion in the local ecology, history, gastronomy, and crafts of the Azuero Peninsula. Guests can also take advantage of unlimited access to bikes, surfboards, kayaks, paddleboards, and snorkeling gear, as well as the shared tennis and equestrian center, ensuring that every moment spent outdoors is filled with adventure and natural splendor.
