COMO LAUCALA ISLAND

LAUCALA ISLAND, PACIFIC OCEAN ISLANDS

COMO Laucala Island is a serene and secluded island retreat immersed in the natural glory of the South Pacific. A coveted portal into unfettered tropical opulence world's away from civilization, this Fijian landmass offers utmost tranquility and rejuvenation of the mind, body, and soul. Embark on a journey to the crystalline waters of Fiji, offering a private world of ethereal white sand beaches, secluded sandbanks, dramatic cliffsides, and lush rainforests.

Remote and exclusive, transient beach footprints are the only evidence of civilization within this pristine ecosystem. Perfected in the art of barefoot luxury, each residence exhibits exquisite interiors offering the pinnacle of beach-chic rusticism. Each of the Island's twenty-four Fijian-styled villas ranging from 1 to 3 bedrooms offers a unique gradient of laidback luxury yet uniform in a gorgeous indoor-outdoor living philosophy. Palapa thatched rooftops smatter the lush tropical foliage, housing spectacular living quarters redefining tropical opulence. Natural wood accents, native stone accent walls, and exotic wood paneling make up airy free-flowing, open-concept spaces. Each estate offers a unique vantage point, set amongst coconut plantations, along deserted beaches, or atop volcanic mountains overlooking coral reefs and endless jungle.

Set over 1,400 hectares, COMO Laucala Island epitomizes the seclusion and graceful hospitality for which the Fijian archipelago is famed. Style and sustainability go hand in hand throughout, from the natural fibers and woods used in the home design to the organic produce grown on island farms. Lacaula curates a unique getaway ideal for couples or those seeking reconnection with the elements.
